Please describe your question or comment briefly:
It was shocking to read of your decision to take away the utility customers credit passed on by our electricity provider. How could a benefit to the customer be unlawful? In this time of runaway inflation, those of us of low incomes need all the help we can get. You have imposed a hardship on the elderly which I find unconscionable. I implore you to reverse this ruling. secondly, the surcharge for this past winter's deficit can be absorbed by the reversal of the above ruling.
