Please describe your comment briefly:

I already have trouble paying my utilities, and with the winter lasting longer, that isn't getting any easier. On top of that the rest of all my bills are getting bigger, and my and my husbands income is getting smaller. If the utilities are able to continue to gouge it's customers, who by the way have no other way to live and warm themselves, I already live with a jacket as layer, and my husband constantly has long underwear on and a jacket, and that's inside.

Please help us and so many others like us.

Thank you

Mrs. Carol Peretti
