Comment: I have tried in vane to find out who are the major shareholders of HydroOne Ltd. shares--specifically the 53% owned by others than the Canada's Ontario Provence. This is critical since those shareholders may ultimately control the destiny of Avista ratepayers. If we are going to bed with the devil, I want to know who the devil is! I'm sure the PUC has this information, or at least should have this information. Please make it known to me and the general public.
