This will serve as my show of support for Mr. Bill Chisolm's proposal for funding teacher and student programs on energy sustainability. We need to change our consumptive habits, and educating our future citizens must play a big part. Idaho Power must also change its way of providing for customers by embracing net metering opportunities, renewable wind, solar and geothermal technologies, and advancing LEEDS as an Idaho standard. Only in this way can we prepare for a future with knowledgeable power customers and their expectations from Idaho Power.

I also support ratepayer oversight of the Idaho Power proposal, perhaps by augmenting the current efficiency advisory committee.

Thank you, Cheri Condie
