Re: Micron Technology, Inc., Contract Demand Level Decrease

Dear Mr. Velikoff:

I am in receipt of your letter of June 25, 2014, wherein Micron Technology, Inc. ("Micron") has requested a decrease to its monthly Contract Demand from 61 megawatts ("MW") to 55 MW effective as of October 1, 2014. Idaho Power Company ("Idaho Power") is pleased to accommodate this request pursuant to the Agreement for Electric Service Between Idaho Power Company and Micron Technology, Inc., dated December 29, 2009 ("Agreement").

The Agreement provides that Micron may request a decrease to its Contract Demand in even 1,000 kilowatt increments. Agreement § 6.2(b). The Agreement further provides that such new Contract Demand shall be in effect for a minimum of at least six (6) months. Id.

Per your request, Micron's new Contract Demand under the Agreement shall be 55 MW effective October 1, 2014, and shall continue until at least April 1, 2015. Idaho Power shall continue to provide a Contract Demand of 55 MW to Micron after April 1, 2015, unless and until Micron provides notice that it desires to decrease and/or increase its Contract Demand in accordance with the Agreement. See Sections 6.2(a) and 6.2(b).

To confirm this mutual understanding, please have an authorized individual from Micron countersign both originals of this letter, keep one original for your records, and return the other original to me at your earliest convenience. As a procedural matter, we
