IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION)
OF IDAHO POWER COMPANY FOR)	CASE NO. IPC-E-12-14
AUTHORITY TO INCREASE ITS RATES)
AND ITS RATE BASE TO RECOVER ITS)
INVESTMENT IN THE LANGLEY GULCH)	ORDER NO. 32508
POWER PLANT)

In Order No. 32503 issued March 27, 2012, Micron Technology, Inc. was granted intervention in the above-referenced case. On March 28, 2012, Micron’s local counsel (Brian Hansen) filed two Motions for Limited Admission Pro Hac Vice for and on behalf of Thorvald A. Nelson and Sara K. Rundell pursuant to Commission Rule 43 and Idaho Bar Commission Rule 227. The Commission grants the Motions.

THE MOTIONS

In his Motions, Mr. Hansen maintains that Mr. Nelson and Ms. Rundell are active members in good standing of the Bars of Colorado and Montana and Montana, respectively, and they maintain a regular practice of law with Holland & Hart, LLP, in Colorado. He further asserts that Mr. Nelson and Ms. Rundell are neither a resident nor licensed to practice law in the State of Idaho. Mr. Hansen further asserts that Mr. Nelson has previously been granted limited admission in other Commission proceedings.

Mr. Hansen certified that he has served a copy of the two Motions on all the other parties in this case and that a copy of their respective Motions, accompanied by the $200 fee and a Certificate of Good Standing, has been submitted to the Idaho State Bar. Mr. Hansen also requests that his attendance from all proceedings in this matter be excused. He certifies that the above information is true and correct to the best of his knowledge. Motions at 2.

FINDINGS

The Commission has reviewed and considered the Motions for Limited Admission Pro Hac Vice filed by Micron in this case. Pursuant to IPUC Rule 43 and IBCR Rule 227, and the representations made by counsel, the Commission finds it is reasonable to grant limited admission to Mr. Nelson and Ms. Rundell to represent Micron. The Commission also finds that Mr. Hansen’s attendance at the aforementioned proceeding shall not be required.

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Thorvald A. Nelson and Sara K. Rundell of the firm Holland & Hart are granted Limited Admission Pro Hac Vice as counsel for Micron Technology.

DONE by Order of the Idaho Public Utilities Commission at Boise, Idaho this 5th day of April 2012.
