Does the U.S. need another gas powered energy plant? Why should we be penalized for producing clean energy.

Please describe your comment briefly:

I am very concerned about this case. Myself and several friends have installed or are in the process of installing solar panels to our homes and business's. By doing this as a grid tied system we are only trying to offset all or part of our total power use. After a few years of research and a large investment in our system it look like Idaho Power now wants to change the rules so as to take our asset away from us.

I for one can not afford to loose this investment.

PLEASE do not let Idaho Power charge me extra for what is my renewable energy source!!!
