Please describe your comment briefly:

Here we go again! Anything that involves money! Before we had a rate increase to fund their pension and now this.

All you ever here is climate change or global warming, call it what you want. But we are being told save , save ,save. Buy flourescent bulbs, turn down your heat, and turn up your A/C ect. It's like Twin Falls save water, so you do and they raise their rate cause of income short fall.

As the IPUC it's time to say NO! they started this program to reduce energy uses during peak hours and I feel I did my part ,once again, and now they talk about the future. Well the future is today.

I feel that this is a good program and for all customers who are on it should at least be able to remain om it. For those who didn't probably never will. This should be grand fathered in and remain so until death do us part.

Stand Up IPUC and so NO for once!!!
