Please describe your comment briefly:

I am dissappointed with the the proposed suspension of the A/C Cool Credit demand response program. Idaho Power asked us to step up to the plate and enroll to help conserve energy.

Now, after a year, we have a electrical box attached to the side of the house and the AC which is to be unused. What a waste of resources. How is conservation good one year and not the next? Idaho Power has employed a bait and switch - are they trying to pay for Langley Gulch?

I would request a public hearing and ask that this program not be suspended. Or at least grandfather in the current participants.

I would urge
