On April 5, 2013, Glanbia Foods, Inc. (Glanbia) filed a Petition requesting that Idaho Power be directed to allow it an allowance under its Rule H tariff. Idaho Power’s Rule H tariff sets forth terms for the Company to accommodate line extension requests that require improvements to electric service facilities. Glanbia’s Petition asks the Commission to “issue its Order requiring Idaho Power to provide it with an allowance for its proposed line extension in the amount of $2,318,000 or other such amount it determines is appropriately calculated pursuant to the Commission’s methodology underlying Rule H.” Glanbia Petition, p. 6. Idaho Power filed an answer on April 26, 2013.

This case is essentially a complaint case involving only Glanbia and Idaho Power, and the parties agreed to a written comment period to process Glanbia’s Petition. Specifically, the parties propose that written comments be filed by the parties and Staff on June 5, 2013, and that reply comments be filed on June 14, 2013. Accordingly, the Commission issues this Procedural Order establishing the comment period agreed to by the parties.
