4. This Intervenor, the J. R. Simplot Company is a corporation duly qualified to do business in the State of Idaho. The J. R. Simplot Company currently has a cogeneration facility at its operations in Pocatello, Idaho. It has a PURPA contract providing for Idaho Power to purchase the output of that plant. That contract that is due to expire in 2015. The J.R. Simplot Company plans to obtain a new PURPA contract with Idaho Power for that Pocatello cogeneration facility in the near future. In addition, the Company is pursuing other energy projects on its property in Idaho with the goal of obtaining PURPA contracts with Idaho Power and possibly other utilities. The J.R. Simplot Company therefore claims a direct and substantial interest in this proceeding because its ability to make such sales will be affected by the outcome of this proceeding.

5. This Intervenor intends to participate herein as a party, and if necessary, to introduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, call and examine witnesses, and be heard in argument. The nature and quality of evidence which this Intervenor will introduce is dependent upon the nature and effect of other evidence in this proceeding.

6. Without the opportunity to intervene herein, this Intervenor would be without any means of participation in this proceeding which may have a material impact on its ability to enter into PURPA contracts in the State of Idaho.

7. Granting this Intervenor's petition to intervene will not unduly broaden the issues nor will it prejudice any party to this case.

WHEREFORE, the J. R. Simplot Company respectfully requests that this Commission grant its Petition to Intervene in these proceedings and to appear and participate in all matters as may be necessary and appropriate; and to present evidence, call and examine witnesses, present argument and to otherwise fully participate in these proceedings.

DATED this 6th day of November, 2013.

RICHARDSON ADAMS, PLLC
