On November 5, 2014, the parties filed a Joint Stipulation requesting that the Commission vacate the November 6 rebuttal deadline and the November 13 technical hearing. The Stipulation states that, after review of the Company's Application and direct testimony filed by several parties, all parties wish to suspend the remaining procedural schedule in order to pursue a resolution of this matter through settlement. The parties further agree to meet for a settlement conference on November 17, 2014. "Should the parties be unable to reach settlement, then a mutually agreeable schedule shall be re-established for the filing of rebuttal testimony and hearing." Joint Stipulation at 2.

Based on the agreement between the parties, and in order to allow adequate time to resolve this matter through negotiation and settlement, we find it reasonable to suspend the procedural schedule in this case and vacate both the rebuttal deadline of November 6 and the Technical Hearing scheduled for November 13.
