Comment: I just heard on the news that Idaho Power will or has asked for a rate increase. I do not think they should get it. My husband and I are retired, and we have a fixed income. We have done our best to lower our power bill, and now it seems that Idaho Power wants to raise the rate because those of us who are using less power have cut into their expected income. They already collect a fee from us to support energy efficiency projects, and we don't qualify because we have a natural gas furnace. Enough is enough. We have to deal with our budget the way it is. They should deal with theirs the way it is.
