Please describe your comment briefly:
To Honorable Members of the IPUC and Intermountain Gas Company,

This is one time that I am happy to offer my input regarding a utility.

Instead of complaining about rate hikes from our electrical utility, it is my pleasure (also that of my wife) to say 'thank you very much!' to Intermountain Gas Company for the series of rate reductions. This is especially significant at this time in history since we are still in the midst of a nasty double recession.

My wife and I are retired and since we're on fixed incomes, we monitor our budget closely so you can understand our gratitude for lower home heating bills.

Grant it, so-called 'fracking' has increased our domestic and Canadian natural gas reserves considerably with favorable markets for lower prices, but we are grateful for savings that are passed on to us as consumers.

Thank you, again, Intermountain Gas Company!

Bob & Ginger Ziel,
Rigby, ID
