Name of Utility Company: Intermountain Gas

Comment: It is about time that Intermountain Gas began a sufficient energy efficiency program.

Since every home will have a mixture of gas and electric devices (furnace, lights, dishwasher, etc.) the Commission should explore with the gas and electric utilities opportunities for joint marketing of energy efficiency.

While there is business competition between the utilities for uses such a home heating, a joint marketing campaign would be much more effective than just promoting each utilities energy efficiency programs alone.
