Re: AT&T Corp. et al v. Qwest Corporation—Case No. ATT-T-04-1

Dear Commissioners:

Recently the parties advised the Commission that they wished to pursue settlement negotiations in an effort to resolve the referenced case and asked that the Commission hold the matter in abeyance for a short time. The parties agreed to report to the Commission concerning the progress of negotiations by today's date.

AT&T and Qwest are continuing their settlement dialogue and, although no conclusion has been reached, the parties believe that progress is being made and that further effort toward settlement is justified. The parties request, therefore, that the Commission continue to hold this matter in abeyance for an additional two weeks. AT&T and Qwest will advise the Commission of the status of their discussions on or before March 18, 2005.
