RE: MOTION FOR LIMITED ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE IN CASE NOS. GNR-T-03-8 AND GNR-T-03-16, APPLICATIONS SEEKING COMMISSION DESIGNATION AS ELIGIBLE TELECOMMUNICATIONS CARRIERS.

On August 25, 2003, Dean J. Miller, local counsel for NPCR, Inc. dba Nextel Partners filed a Motion for Limited Admission Pro Hac Vice, pursuant to Idaho State Bar Rule 222, for Philip R. Schenkenberg.

In the Motion, Mr. Schenkenberg certifies that he is an active member, in good standing, of the bar of the State of Minnesota, that he maintains a regular practice of law in Saint Paul, Minnesota, and is not a resident of the State of Idaho or licensed to practice law in Idaho. Mr. Schenkenberg also certifies that he has not previously been admitted under Idaho State Bar Rule 222 and has not been denied admission under this rule in this or in any other jurisdiction. Mr. Miller and Mr. Schenkenberg certify that a copy of this Motion has been served on all other parties in these cases and that a copy of the Motion, accompanied by a $200 fee, has been provided to the Idaho State Bar. Mr. Miller also acknowledges that his attendance shall be required at all proceedings in which Philip R. Schenkenberg appears, unless specifically excused.

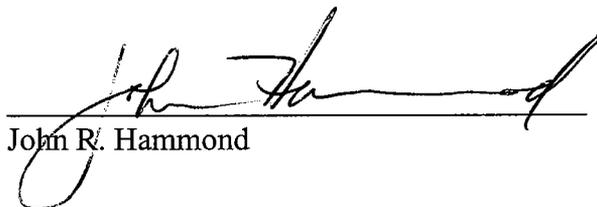

STAFF REVIEW AND RECOMMENDATION

Recently the Commission issued a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking regarding its Rules of Procedure. Case No. RUL-U-03-2, IDAPA 31-0101-0301. These Proposed Rules incorporate Idaho State Bar Rule 222 that provides for limited admission for attorneys not licensed in Idaho but in other states. See Proposed Rules of Procedure 19 and 43. Staff has reviewed this Motion and believes that it complies with Idaho State Bar Rule 222 and the Commission's Proposed Rules of Procedure 19 and 43. Accordingly, Staff recommends that the Commission grant this Motion.

COMMISSION DECISION

Does the Commission wish to grant Philip R. Schenkenberg's, co-counsel for Nextel Partners, Motion for Limited Admission Pro Hac Vice?
