COME NOW the Petitioners, WaveSent and PageData (the "Paggers") and the Respondent Qwest Corporation ("Qwest") and move the Commission for an Order extending the time for Qwest to file its response to the Petition for Arbitration filed by PageData on March 23, 2004 and the Petition for Arbitration filed by WaveSent on

ORIGINAL

March 25, 2004 (“Petitions for Arbitration”), and the Amendment to Petitions filed by the Pagers on April 12, 2004 (“Amendment”). The Pagers and Qwest (collectively referred to herein as the “Parties”) represent the following to the Commission:

1. Qwest has prepared a Response to the Petitions and Amendment. Qwest has, however, not yet filed these pleadings with the Commission.
2. On May 13, 2004, the Parties met in person at the Commission’s offices for negotiations. Wayne Hart of the Commission’s Staff, and Don Howell, Counsel for the Commission, attended the negotiations. The Parties made significant progress and reached an agreement in principle on many of the terms of new interconnection agreements between the two Pagers and Qwest.
3. The Parties are optimistic that negotiations will be successful, in which case these arbitration cases can be dismissed.
4. The Parties would like to avoid unnecessary effort and expense to themselves and the Commission, and wish to provide a period of time in which the Parties direct their entire efforts to negotiations rather than litigation.

The Parties respectfully move the Commission for an order extending the time for Qwest to file its response to the Petitions until the earlier of (i) June 11, 2004 or (ii) 1 business day after the Pagers provide written notice Qwest’s counsel that they have elected to proceed with the arbitrations.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of all Parties this 27th of May, 2004.
