FROM: DON HOWELL

DATE: MAY 1, 2007

SUBJECT: AT&T COMMUNICATIONS' COMPLAINT AGAINST QWEST CORPORATION; CASE NO. QWE-T-06-17

On April 12, 2007, the Commission issued Order No. 30297 directing the parties to develop a schedule to process this complaint case. More specifically, the Order directed the parties to participate in a telephonic scheduling conference with the Staff Attorney "for the purpose of developing a schedule to process this case." Order No. 30297 at 2. The parties convened their scheduling conference on May 2, 2007. They propose the following schedule:

May 14, 2007	Qwest Answer due
May 15, 2007	Discovery begins
Week of June 4, 2007	Initial settlement conference – to be conducted between the parties
July 9, 2007	AT&T's Direct Testimony
September 10, 2007	Qwest's Reply Testimony
November 9, 2007	AT&T's Rebuttal Testimony
November 30, 2007	Summary judgment motions and discovery cut-off date
December 21, 2007	Summary judgment oppositions
January 11, 2008	Summary judgment replies
To be Determined	Summary judgment hearing
If necessary	Evidentiary hearing

Requests for post-hearing briefs will be made at the hearing, if necessary.

Pursuant to procedural Rules 44 and 61, the parties propose that service between the parties be by electronic mail. They also propose the number of testimony/pleading and discovery copies served upon the Commission be reduced to a testimony/pleading original and five (5) copies and just one copy of discovery. IDAPA 31.01.01.044 and 061.03.

COMMISSION DECISION

Does the Commission wish to adopt the parties' proposed schedule to process this case? Any changes or adjustments?
