Re: Qwest Corporation's Filing for Commission Approval of Non-Impaired Wire Center Designations with Supporting Data ; Affidavits of Robert Brigham and Rachel Torrence, in support of Qwest Corporation's Petition in Case No. QWE-T-08-07

Dear Ms. Jewell:

Enclosed for filing with this Commission are Qwest Corporation's Filing for Commission Approval of Non-Impaired Wire Center Designations with Supporting Data and the Affidavits of Rachel Torrence and Robert Brigham in support of Qwest Corporation's Petition for Commission Approval of Non-Impaired Wire Center Lists Pursuant to the Triennial Review Remand Order ("Wire Center Petition"). The attachments to these exhibits are termed "Highly Confidential" under the terms of the proposed Protective Agreement, which was filed as Attachment B to the Wire Center Petition and which is based on the language of an agreed model protective order that was adopted by several state regulatory commissions in Qwest territory in recent years in similar actions. Qwest has provided Highly Confidential redacted versions of certain attachments, which preserve the confidentiality interests of competing CLECs while providing information to intervenors to evaluate Qwest's wire center listings herein..

The Highly Confidential attachments themselves are being provided separately and under seal and are accompanied by an Attorney Certificate. Qwest intends to serve these Highly Confidential attachments on the Staff once its attorney has signed the proposed Protective Agreement and the individual Staff members have executed the associated exhibits thereto.

Agreement and the individual Staff members have executed the associated exhibits thereto. Intervening CLECs who sign the protective agreement and associated exhibits will be provided the redacted versions of the Highly Confidential documents together with the CLEC-specific information pertaining to their own company.

Please let me know if you have any questions about this filing. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Re: Confidential Attachments to the Affidavits of Robert Brigham and Rachel Torrence, in support of Qwest Corporation's Petition in Case No. QWE-T-08-07

Dear Ms. Jewell:

Enclosed for filing with this Commission are three copies of the Highly Confidential Attachments A, A (redacted) B, B (redacted), C, C (redacted) D and D (redacted) to the Affidavit of Rachel Torrence and Highly Confidential Attachments A, A (redacted), B, B (redacted) C, and D to the Affidavit of Robert Brigham. These affidavits are filed in support of Qwest Corporation's Petition for Commission Approval of Non-Impaired Wire Center Lists Pursuant to the Triennial Review Remand Order (Wire Center Petition) and Qwest Corporation's Filing for Commission Approval on Non-Impaired Wire Center Designation with Support Data, filed concurrently with these affidavits and attachments. These documents are termed "Highly Confidential" under the terms of the proposed Protective Agreement, which was filed as Exhibit B to the Wire Center Petition and which is based on the language of an agreed model protective order that was adopted by several state regulatory commissions in similar actions in recent years.

Also enclosed is an Attorney Certificate in support of this Highly Confidential filing.

Qwest is providing these Highly Confidential attachments with the understanding that they will be reviewed only by the Commissioners. All documents will be disclosed to the Commission Staff once its attorney has signed the proposed Protective Agreement and the individual Staff members have executed the associated exhibits thereto. Intervening CLECs who sign the protective agreement and associated exhibits will be provided the redacted versions of the Highly Confidential documents together with the CLEC-specific information pertaining to their own company.

Pursuant to the Commission's practice these attachments will not be released for review by any other person unless and until the Commission issues its order so directing the disclosure following a hearing on the issue.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours,
