IDAHO PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

Re: Name Change for Rural Telephone Company

Dear Ms Jewell:

Rural Telephone Company (the "Company") has filed the enclosed Certificate of Assumed Business Name with the Idaho Secretary of State's office adopting "RTI" as its assumed name. Going forward, the Company intends to use RTI as its "dba" and, therefore, requests that the Commission approve an amendment to the Company's name in its certificate of public convenience and necessity to "Rural Telephone Company, dba RTI." My understanding is that this ministerial action can be accomplished without the need for the Company to file a formal petition with the Commission.

The Company has revised its tariff to incorporate the above name change as well, and this is being directed to the Commission for its approval under separate cover from the Company's consultant, GVNW.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need anything further from the Company concerning this request.

Sincerely,

Michael C. Creamer
