Please describe your comment briefly:

Our home is only 11 miles from downtown Coeur d'Alene. We only have one option as a service provider for our land line phone and it costs around $50 per month. There is no reliable cell phone service at all. The only TV service we can receive is via DISH or Direct TV satellite. If T Modile or another competitor wanted to provide servies to our area, we would like to have the opportunity to improve our communications services.
