Name of Utility Company: Morning View Water Co

Comment: I just got thru reviewing the request from Morning View Water Co and all the comments and to be honest I can't believe that you are even dealing with this Company that sounds so crooked. If anything he should be prosecuted for for being dishonest. One other thing , how could you even suggest a flat monthly rate at the level you have. There is no utility company I know of that does this, It's ok to have a minimum monthly rate like most utility company's have and after that it should be set at a usage rate, why should someone have to pay for something they are not receivin.
