Please describe your comment briefly:

i think the rate increase they are seeking is absurd. a 142% increase when people are out of a job and some are retired. working people are not getting raises, shorter work weeks. we are all having to cut back and make changes in order to survive. i think people should make a profit but this is absurd. hopefully you will decline this large of an increase as a lot of people don't get a 142% increase in wages maybe in a life time. thank you Ron Saterfiel
