1. APPLICATION OF TARIFF AND SERVICE AREA

This tariff contains the regulations and rates applicable to the provision of Long Distance Message Telecommunications Service by the Company, consisting of outbound 1+ service and inbound 800 service. Service is furnished subject to transmission, atmospheric, and like conditions.

Service is offered by the Company within and throughout the entire state of Idaho. Rates, rules, and regulations contained within this tariff apply to Company customers throughout Idaho.

2. REGULATIONS

2.1 Undertaking of the Company

2.1.1 Scope

The Company undertakes to provide Long Distance Message Telecommunications Service within the state of Idaho in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this tariff. The Company does not own or operate long distance transmission facilities, but rather resells the facilities of underlying carriers.

2.1.2 Shortage of Facilities

All service is subject to the availability of suitable facilities. The Company reserves the right to limit the length of communications or to discontinue furnishing services when necessary because of the lack of satellite or other transmission medium capacity or because of any causes beyond its control.

2.1.3 Liability of the Company

(A) Except as stated in this Section 2.1.3, the Company shall have no liability for damages of any kind arising out of or related to events, acts, rights or privileges contemplated in this tariff. This tariff does not limit the liability of the Company for willful misconduct.

(B) The liability of the Company for damages resulting in whole or in part from or arising in connection with the furnishing of service under this tariff, including but not limited to mistakes, omissions, interruptions, delays, errors or other defects or misrepresentations shall not exceed an amount equal to five times the initial minute charge provided for under this tariff for the intrastate long distance call for the period during which the call was affected. No other liability in any event shall attach to the Company.

(C) The Company shall not be liable for any failure of performance hereunder due to causes beyond its control, including but not limited to acts of God, fires, flood or other catastrophes; any law, order, regulation, directive, action or request of the United States Government, or any other government, including state and local governments having jurisdiction over the Company, or of any department, agency, commission, bureau, corporation or other instrumentality of any one or more of said governments, or of any civil or military authority; or national emergencies, insurrections, riots, wars, or strikes or other labor difficulties.

(D) The Company shall not be liable for any act or omission of any other entity furnishing to the Customer facilities, equipment, or services used with the Company's Long Distance Message Telecommunications Service. Nor shall the Company be liable for any damages or losses due to the failure or negligence of the Customer or due to the failure of Customer-provided equipment, facilities or services.

(E) The included tariff language does not constitute a determination by the Idaho Public Utilities Commission that a limitation of liability should be upheld in a court of law. Acceptance for filing by the Commission recognizes that it is a court's responsibility to adjudicate negligence and consequential damage claims. It is also the court's responsibility to determine the validity of the exculpatory clause.

2.1.4 Claims

The Company shall be indemnified and saved harmless by the Customer from and against all loss, liability, damage and expense, including reasonable attorney's fees, due to claims for libel, slander, or infringement of copyright in connection with the material transmitted over the Company's facilities; and any other claim resulting from any act or omission of the Customer or patron(s) of the Customer relating to the use of the Company's facilities.

2.2 Prohibited Uses

Long Distance Message Telecommunications Service shall not be used for any unlawful purpose.

2.3 Use of Service

Long Distance Message Telecommunications Service may be used to transmit communications of the Customer in a manner consistent with the terms of this tariff and the policies and regulations of the FCC.

Use of Long Distance message Telecommunications Service is considered an order for such service.

2.4 Payment Arrangements

2.4.1 Payment for Service

(A) The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges for facilities and services furnished by the Company. Federal, state and local sales, use and excise taxes, where applicable, shall be added to the charges contained herein. It shall be the responsibility of the Customer to pay these taxes and to accept the liability of any such unpaid taxes that may subsequently become applicable retroactively.

(B) Bills are due and payable upon receipt. If the Customer's net bill is not paid (payment received by the Company) within twenty (20) days after the invoice date listed on the bill it shall become a delinquent bill and interest at the lesser of (1) the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or (2) the highest rate allowed by law per month shall accrue upon any unpaid amount. If the Company initiates legal proceedings to collect any amount due hereunder and the Company substantially prevails in such proceedings then the defendant Customer shall pay the reasonable attorney's fees and costs of the Company in prosecuting such proceedings and appeals therefrom.

(C) The Customer will be assessed a charge of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or the highest amount allowed by law, whichever is lesser, for each check submitted by the Customer to the Company which a financial institution refuses to honor for insufficient funds or a non-existent account.

2.4.2 Discontinuance of Service for Cause

Upon non-payment of any sum owing to the Company for more than 30 days beyond the date of rendition of the bill for service or upon violation of any of the terms or conditions governing the furnishing of service under this tariff, the Company may, after 24 hours advance notice in writing to the Customer, without incurring any liability, discontinue the furnishing of service under this tariff.

These restrictions on Long Distance Message Telecommunications Service may include, but are not limited to, the following: the Company may withhold the use of a specific 800 number or deny its transfer to another carrier for nonpayment of charges due. Such action may be taken without written notice being sent to the Customer. Upon payment of charges by the Customer this restriction on the use of a specific 800 number will be removed.

2.4.3 Customer Inquiries and Complaints

Customer inquiries or complaints regarding the billing or service provided by the Company should be directed to the following toll free number: 1-800-460-0556. The customer may also contact the Company's Customer Service Department by mail at:

3. SERVICE OFFERINGS

3.1 Intrastate Message Telecommunications Service

3.1.1(a) Description of Services

The Company offers switched and dedicated access MTS and 800 interexchange services by the resale of the services of Underlying Carriers, currently Allnet and Sprint. Such service is available twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week. MTS and 800 Services are offered on a time and distance sensitive rate basis and an optional flat rate basis.

3.1.1(b) Timing of Calls

The Customer's long distance usage charge is based on the actual usage of the Company's services. Usage begins when the called party picks up the receiver, and ends when either party hangs up. Calls are measured by Underlying Carriers, whose services are resold by the Company, in accordance with its own Tariff.

3.1.1(c) Calculation of Distance

The Company uses the V&H coordinate system to calculate the distance of calls.

3.1.1(d) Minimum Call Completion Rate

A Customer can expect a call completion rate (number of calls completed/ number of calls attempted) of not less than 99% during peak use periods.

3.1.1(e) Advance Payments

The Company will not assess advance payments in Idaho.
